20% savings on walking and leisure activity breaks in February

Fantastic February savings of 20% are available on a selection of UK guided walking and leisure activity breaks courtesy of specialist operator, HF Holidays.

For example, enjoy some lovely Lake District walks on a three-night guided walking break - starting 19 or 26 February - based at the company's Derwent Bank Country House which is located on the waterfront on Derwent Water.

The revised cost is just £176 (saving £43) inclusive of the programme of organised walks and social activities, transport to and from the walks, plus the services of an HF Holidays' walking guide.

Or discover the South Downs and Sussex countryside on a four-night guided walking break starting 22 February which is based at Abingworth Hall Country House - set beside its own lake amid eight acres of parkland in the South Downs.

With the above offer, the reduced price is £228 (saving £57) inclusive of the programme of organised walks and social activities, transport to and from the walks, plus the services of an HF Holidays' walking guide.

Alternatively, there's a four-night 'Singing for Pleasure' break – incorporating a wide selection of music – starting 26 February and based at Newfield Hall Country House near Malhamdale in the Southern Yorkshire Dales which now costs £248 (saving £61) inclusive of the holiday programme and the services of a leader.

All prices are per person, twin-share and also include full board accommodation.
