Family Easter breaks with HF Holidays

For a family Easter getaway, HF Holidays suggests a great value, family-friendly walking break on the Isle of Wight.

Highlights include a choice of interesting guided walks during the day (easier for younger kids and harder for active teenagers) and various entertainment for the evenings such as giant Jenga, table tennis or Wii competitions.

The cost of a four-night holiday starting 2 April (based on sharing an en-suite family room) at its Freshwater Bay Country House – situated on the island's west coast – is £399 per adult with up to two children (up to 17 years of age and sharing with two adults) FREE of charge.

This includes full-board accommodation, the programme of organised walks and social activities, transport to and from the walks, plus the services of an HF Holidays' walks leader. Transport to the Isle of Wight is extra.

Or, an for alternative family Easter getaway, the company has a new four-night self-guided 'Relax and Cycle' break on Jersey which is graded easy and follows routes along the island's network of quiet country lanes.
