Kids pay just 50% on selected UK family-friendly walking breaks

Take the kids for half-price this summer with HF Holidays on a UK family-friendly walking break at the most child-friendly of its UK Country Houses – featuring extensive grounds, a range of indoor and outdoor games and with the accommodation set aside for the sole use of families.

These holidays are very inclusive – guests just have to pay for drinks – and very sociable and there's a choice of interesting guided walks during the day (easier for younger kids and harder for active teenagers) as well as evening entertainment.

Seven-night 'Guided Walking for Families' holidays are available, for example, at Newfield Hall near Malhamdale in the Yorkshire Dales starting 24 July and at Holnicote House near Selworthy on Exmoor commencing 24 July and 14 August.

Based on sharing an en-suite family room, the costs are £649 per adult, £324 per child (aged four-17 years and sharing with two adults) and under fours are free of charge.

At Holnicote House, there's also a seven-night 'Guided Walking Families Plus' holiday - - starting 31 July - an easier option for families with younger children which includes the normal choice of walks plus an extra-short, part-day walk - ideal for little legs. After the walks, play leaders are on hand at the house to organise games and activities.

The costs are £659 and £329 respectively with under fours free of charge.

All prices quoted include full-board, the programme of organised walks and social activities, transport to/from the walks, plus the services of an HF Holidays' walks leader.
