Kids go free this summer on the Isle of Arran

'Kids go free' this summer on the Isle of Arran on selected short breaks or week-long stays – ideal countryside escapes for independent families – is the great offer from HF Holidays.

This fantastic deal is available on these Freedom breaks for the weeks commencing 3 and 24 July, plus 14 and 21 August and the company is offering one free child place – valid for children up to 17 years – per one full paying adult.

This means, for example, that a family of four can enjoy a three-night stay – inclusive of full board accommodation at the company's Altachorvie Country House – for a total of just £438, whilst a week costs £1022 per party. Four, five and six-night options are available.

Also included is an OS Explorer map of the local area - so that families can discover the island's dramatic landscapes and stunning wildlife at their leisure - together with a guide listing local attractions and activities such as kayaking and climbing at the Arran Adventure Company; Brodick Castle and Country Park or the Arran Viking Festival taking place on 14 and 15 August.

Altachorvie is situated on the island's east coast with superb views across Lamlash Bay to Holy Island and facilities include a multi-purpose ballroom - ideal as a games room with table tennis or dancing - a range of board games and books, plus putting, badminton and croquet are available on the lawns.
